Scope of the Journal. This journal publishes original research papers and surveys papers in mathematics. Its scope is to promote study and research in all fields of mathematics and to contribute to the diffusion of the mathematical culture. The publication of the articles is subject to the approval of one or more referees.

Submission of Manuscripts. Authors must submit their manuscripts as a single PDF file by using the online submission system <http://siba-ese.unisalento.it/index.php/notemat/about/submissions#onlineSubmissions>. The authors will be asked to supply the title of the paper, abstract, keywords and AMS classification. Moreover, in the Step 1 “Suggested Editors/Comments for the Editor/Suggested Reviewers” the authors must suggest a member of the Editorial Board whose area is closer to the topic of the submission (see the electronic version of Note di Matematica).

Articles submitted for publication must be written in English and must not have been published before or be under consideration for publication elsewhere.

The preferred format for submission is  $\LaTeX$ . The first page must contain the title, authors’ names and addresses, the abstract, keywords and MS classification numbers. Figures must also be prepared in electronic form. References must be in alphabetic order, with journal’s names abbreviated according to Mathematical Reviews conventions, and listed at the end of the manuscript.

Accepted Manuscripts. Articles accepted for publication must be typeset in  $\LaTeX$  according to the journal’s own style. Authors may download the style files (.cls, .sty) and instructions (.tex, .dvi, .ps, .pdf) from the journal’s website. Figures must be in Encapsulated PostScript (TM) (.eps) format. Authors should choose 0.1mm of width for thin lines and 0.3mm of width for thick lines in their drawing program.
