

ABSTRACT. - An eigenvalue problem concerning a Fredholm integral equation of second kind, with a symmetric kernel of "closed cycle" is considered. The Rayleigh Ritz procedure and the orthogonal invariants method are applied for determining rigorous bounds for the eigenvalues.

Accettato per la pubblicazione sulla Rivista "Calcolo".